Colonial Life Tops Worksite Company List

National Association of Health Underwriters members name Colonial Life their favorite voluntary benefits company

COLUMBIA, S.C. (March 24, 2010) — Colonial Life is the number one worksite marketing/voluntary benefits company, according to members of the National Association of Health Underwriters.

NAHU surveyed its members in January, asking them to name their favorite worksite companies and products. Survey respondents supplied their own answers rather than choosing from a list of preselected options. More respondents named Colonial Life as their favorite than any other worksite company.

“Great company to deal with — easy enrollment and a vast product portfolio,” commented one survey respondent. NAHU represents more than 100,000 licensed health insurance agents, brokers, consultants and benefit professionals through more than 200 chapters across America. The survey results were reported in the March issue of Health Insurance Underwriter magazine.

“This survey shows employers and brokers value the benefits, communication and enrollment solutions we provide,” said Tom Gilligan, Colonial Life’s senior vice president of national sales. “Offering excellent service is one way we help our customers make their benefits count — and we strive to exceed those expectations every day.”

Colonial Life & Accident Insurance Company is a market leader in providing insurance benefits for employees and their families through their workplace, along with individual benefits education, advanced yet simple-to-use enrollment technology and quality personal service. Colonial Life offers disability, life and supplemental accident and health insurance policies in 49 states and the District of Columbia. Similar policies, if approved, are underwritten in New York by a Colonial Life affiliate, The Paul Revere Life Insurance Company, Worcester, Mass. Colonial Life is based in Columbia, S.C., and is a subsidiary of Unum Group, one of the world’s leading providers of employee benefits.
